

renewables
for a better life

arauco

CRIME PREVENTION

ARAUCO is committed to promoting the highest standards of conduct among its employees, customers, suppliers, and third parties. The Company has developed a Financial Crime Prevention Policy with guidelines designed to identify, measure, control and monitor risk factors related to bribery, corruption, money laundering, financing of foreign terrorism, and the receipt of illegally obtained goods.

Please share our commitment to the following core values:

- a. ARAUCO promotes the adoption of actions that seek to mitigate the occurrence of crime.
- b. ARAUCO is committed to carrying out its operations in compliance with the law.
- c. ARAUCO has policies and procedures that govern our contracts, operations and local or international transactions, and are applicable to all business relationships.
- d. ARAUCO seeks to conduct business with third parties that comply with our same high standards.